About Cardinal Stritch University

Stritch began as a teaching institution for the Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi in 1937. Today, Stritch offers more than 60 undergraduate and graduate degree programs that help students develop new skills, gain career-related experience, and build professional networks.

Stritch is known as an excellent choice for studying business, education, liberal arts, leadership, nursing, and the sciences. Students with diverse faith and cultural backgrounds embrace and live our core Franciscan values of creating a caring community, showing compassion, reverencing creation and making peace.

The University offers courses at our campus in the North Shore of Milwaukee, Brookfield, Madison and online. Undergraduate and graduate classes are also available through partnerships with technical colleges and employers.
